A Christmas Carol (Dramatized): A Radio Play Based On Charles Dickensâ€™ Classic Short Story

Synopsis

This is a full-cast recording of Charles Dickens' classic holiday favorite A Christmas Carol, the tale of miserly old Ebenezer Scrooge. It is Christmas Eve, and the air outside is as cold as Scrooge's heart. Come nightfall, Scrooge receives three visitors: the ghosts of Christmas Past, Present, and Future. Each spirit takes him on a hair-raising journey through time, yielding glimpses of Tiny Tim and Bob Cratchit-and even Scrooge's painfully hopeful younger self. Will Scrooge's heart be opened? Can he escape his cursed fate?

Customer Reviews

This is an independently produced Dickens' Classic by very talented voice over actors. I am fortunate to know some of them including the producer. It is a little over 70 minutes and worth every minute you spend listening. There are about 23 chapters and the first time I listened it jumped all over the place until my son told me my computer was set on shuffle so remember to check that. You don't want it on shuffle! Listen and you will enjoy it immensely! If any of you read my previous review I apologize for the negativity as a result of my lack of knowledge of the shuffle icon. Merry Christmas to all and hope you enjoy listening. Judith M. Flynn.

It's been a long while since I've listened to storytelling in audio form. I'm so glad people are bringing back old-time radio programs. This recording of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" was captivating! The characters were sharp, alive, and believable, and the direction and editing superb. The story telling pulled me in from start to finish. A brilliant piece of work. I tip my hat to all those involved in this wonderful project. I hope you have more projects like this in the works! Five Stars, guys!!!

This is a great product, with a different take on a classic story. Voices were wonderful. I found this from finding out that this is the Co-Creator for We're Alive, another audio drama that deals with zombies. Both are excellent, and worth listening to.
