Customer Reviews

This really should be called a magazine, it's hardly a book. It's a few pages each on the top 10 locations in the DR. I could have printed this info out off the internet and saved myself the $10

This book was so detailed about different highlights of the Dominican Republic that you almost feel like you are there. It doesn't cover everything to know about the location, but rather pushes 10 different places that are especially nice that you aren't going to want to miss. Between the amazing nature, rich history and culture, and the amazing architecture, this is a place that is perfect for almost anyone. The author does a wonderful job of clearly explaining the different locations. I know I am ready to book a flight and start exploring this magical place!

It was okay.
