Customer Reviews

Lots of recipes, and with as many as there are, it's worth 99 cents, even though some need editing because an ingredient is not listed completely. Uses lots of canned ingredients, which is easy but some might prefer all natural ingredients. I prefer to know entire time from start to finish, including the release time, which she does not provide - she provides prep and cook time. No nutritional info. And it's a personal quirk, I suppose, but I find her style of writing instructions that include frequent statements like "you will," "next you will want to," and "next you will need to," to be incredibly annoying.

I've had better

Enjoyed reading this Instant Pot Cookbook. The recipes are pretty good, i have tried many of them already and they were great...definitely recommend.
