Maisonette is a successful London shop and design studio that specializes in vintage and contemporary designs for modern interiors: glass, ceramics, textile, furniture, and large-format paintings. They provide the Abstract Expressionist paint-by-number canvases for Tate Modern in London.

Pay attention to the product description: you are getting here only 6 unique designs (each design has 4 cards, 2 with dark background and 2 with light background). Each design is fairly simple. The back of the card is completely blank except for a copyright note---no typical markings for stamp location or address lines as you find on most postcards. I do enjoy being able to customize these cards with my own color palette, but these are not really beautiful or very detailed. This book might be a good choice for artists who get bored or frustrated with very complex designs, though!

Nice little coloring book of postcards with high quality cardstock. The set offers six different patterns with each design having 4 cards - 2 with dark background and 2 with light background. Unusual pictures - I've never seen a Dalmatian dog on a postcard before! The pictures aren't as detailed as many are, but fun to play with - there's enough room on the large card to creatively develop your own unique border or design of your choosing. Each design is fairly simple, which I enjoy! This gives the colorist a chance to express his or her own creativity, The back of the card is blank except for a copyright note. A nice variety to play with when your eyes are tired from coloring microscopic pictures on some other post cards! The only reason I rated this a 4 was because of the limited patterns, otherwise it would definitely have been a 5.

These are beautiful, sturdy, large postcards! There is a lot of room for creativity within the black and white lined pictures to color yet they aren't so difficult that you feel like you have to be an artist to do them justice. I just colored my first one the other day (the Dalmatian that I chose to spot with greens and blues) and it turned out really beautifully! They are cards I'll actually feel good about sending out once I finish them!

not exactly what I expected. how many grey sheets vaguely resembling the same flowers or dog do I need?

I didn't realize that there were four of each design. It gets a bit repetitious.

These post cards are must delightful! They are colouring pages. While we were traveling, we sent some of them out, and everyone who received them was delighted with them, using gel pens to make masterpieces!

Did not like the "pictures" and returned the product.

Very cute cards. Good quality.
