Sidney Crosby (Amazing Athletes)

Synopsis

Pittsburgh Penguins star Sidney Crosby has been dominating the ice for most of his life. He learned to skate when he was three, and by age seven, his talent had captured the attention of newspaper reporters. In 2005, he was the number one pick in the NHL draft. Since then he has broken multiple scoring records in the pro league. Called the best in the league by his peers and fans, Sidney knows there's more to success than just skill. As captain for the Penguins, Sidney has to work hard and be a good leader. Learn more about the incredible life of one of the NHL's best players.

Jeff Savage has written dozens of books for young readers, many of them sports related. His other Amazing Athlete titles include LeBron James, Peyton Manning, Tom Brady, Dale Earnhardt Jr., Danica Patrick, and Travis Pastrana. He frequently visits schools around the country to talk to kids about his work. Jeff Savage has written dozens of books for young readers, many of them sports related. If it were not for the fact we love Sid the Kid, the book would not be a fun read. Does not keep our sons wanting to read on.

I just adore Sidney Crosby but this book was quite juvenile with some untruths.. Sidney did not have an apartment prior to living with Mario Lemieux's family, nor were his front teeth "knocked out" by a Philadelphia Flyer, they were broken off (the lower portion).
