I am in no way a professional artist. Quite the opposite, but I love manga so I decided to learn to draw it. I have bought several drawing books including this one. I like this one in particular because it leaves an empty practice page next to the instructions so I can draw and become familiar with the shapes needed to design a character. This book is not going to teach you how to be a professional, but it offers the chance for you to practice. I enjoyed it and found it easy to tweak the characters to add a bit of my own style into them. I would recommend investing in other Manga drawing books though because although I enjoyed this one, it does not offer the beginner steps needed to draw. Something like "mastering manga" or such would be a good introduction before jumping into this.

Amazing book, breaks Manga drawing down to an understandable level!

Cute

Love every page!

Another amazing book by Christopher Hart. Gives you instructions how to and pages to practice on. It has Faeries, Chibis, even these lil cute but bad monsters! This is a must have if you ever wanted to know how to draw Manga style!

really awesome book, really helpful when having artist block. :)
