Customer Reviews

Good stuff! I stopped playing WWF because of the "Acceptable Words with Friends bulls."

Increasing actual vocabulary is worth the trip, but filling your head with nonsense words is highly annoying. Should be called "Syllables With Friends" or "Inarticulate Crap Mixed In With Actual Words."Sorry, but old school Scrabble is a much better game and players can't cheat with

WordBag,

1000 Totally Unfair Scrabble Words is the logical crown jewel in the Flash Vocabulary series. Derek McKenzie didn't simply link all of his words into one volume. Although that is convenient, he went the extra mile, creating themed lists (Mammals, Coins, etc.) in addition to a well-designed alphabetical directory. Of course, the pictures had to go. For that, you still need the individual books. McKenzie recommends visualization and themes as aids for learning and retaining(!!) large lists of words. All in all, 1000 Totally Unfair Scrabble Words is a treat for those of us who have the collection. It is a wonderful introduction for those of you who haven't checked out the ten-part series, yet.

Now I can fight dirty like the gun slingers I've played against. Also a very funny book to read if you into bizarre words.

I was a a bit disappointed because the first word I looked up wasn't there. Of course there are tons of words used in word so he couldn't include all. It is fun to have the definitions for obscure words and I'll learn some new ones.

Helpful.

An excellent book

So far, I have used this book many times even if though some word's don't work for me, they get me thinking of words that mean almost the same, but works with the letters I have at that time. It improves my thinking process.

Great for Scrabble lovers!!
