American Woodworker is one of the premier publications for woodworking. Their roster of craftsman contributors provide top-notch technical information in a way that hobbyist can understand. The magazine has been in business for decades with over 140 issues in their backlist. Randy Johnson is the Editor.

Has a bunch of great projects but leaves out pretty much all instruction. You get cut lists sure, but some of these projects need a step by step.

All projects quite difficult and require extensive shop tools.

Good book of projects... happy I have it.

great informative book

As Expected

Should keep hubby busy for a while, We found so many projects to do.

Lots of great projects and ideas. This was a gift for my woodworker boyfriend and he loves it. Great details and pictures!

Used this book as a present to my son who loves woodworking. He has enjoyed the book and has made a project from it.
