MARRYING A DELACOURT (Harlequin Comics)

Synopsis

Grace, a lawyer, is surprised when Michael, her ex-boyfriend from three years ago, calls her out of the blue. He says he needs her, asks her to come immediately. Unable to flatly refuse his pleas over the phone, Grace goes to meet him. Grace had once dreamed of marrying the man she loved and building a warm home with him. But when Michael, the heir of an oil magnate, proposed, she turned him down. She didn't have a choice back then, and he must still resent her now—so why would he reach out to her for help?

Customer Reviews

Ok this one takes the cake! It is definitely different from the normal romance novel but it, is a great story., read it.

Marrying a Delacourt was entertaining, but how likely was this to happen? Runaway boys found in a barn???Kept for a weekend, then turned into the law?? Old kindled romance, then the ultimate adoption, marriage, etc. Just a little bit too fairy tale for my taste. I do like Sheryl Woods as an author and like the Delacourt series, but they are a little far fetched. If someone wants light reading, without too serious a plot this book fills the bill.

A good series is hard to beat . I must admit this was first time to read a book by Sherrl Woods.I was hooked.I read the whole series. Now I am working on the Adams series. If you start with this book you still be dawn to this family and their friends the Adams.good series is hard to beat.rd

I very much enjoyed Marrying a Delacourt. Truly great story line. It was great that Jamie and Josh found happiness.

This was a good book in the series I enjoy this author a lot. It was about two lawyers who broke up after the guy became a workaholic. Several years later, during a forced vacation,two runways appeared. He deals with this by calling Grace, his foreclosed.

These books are quite short. I have to stretch them to make them last more than a day.

Enjoyed the entire Delacourt family series. GREAT writing...love Sherryl Woods books!!

I enjoy all of Sherryl Woods books.
