ITMB Publishing (International Travel Maps and Books) of Vancouver, Canada, has published detailed reference and travel maps of countries, regions, and cities around the world since 1985. The company's titles include many that are unique or the first of their kind, including the first commercially available travel map of South America.

The best map of Venezuela in the whole world (if you don't own a GPS)

International Travel Maps have established themselves as the definitive national maps, at least in the Western Hemisphere. This is no exception - it is without a doubt the most authoritative national map of Venezuela. Watch out for the forthcoming maps by Emilio Perez though. Rarely encountered in Venezuela, you will need to purchase this before leaving. The map is topographical with good political information, accurate roads and some environmental and cultural information to boot.

This is a nice map of Venezuela. A little pricey, but it does the job. I do though recommend though that for serious road travel in Venezuela that one gets a GPS having Venezuelan road maps. Road signs in Venezuela are poor or non-existent so GPS, especially one that gives spoken directions, is the way to go.

This is the best printed map of Venezuela available. Best use of this map is in conjunction with a Garmin GPS that has the excellent, free map(Venrut) published by GPSYV.
