Synopsis

From The Colemans: The Journal“Are you the Colemans, Caleb and Zack?” she asked, closing the door behind her and stepping closer to the brothers.“Seems like we ought to be asking the questions,” Caleb said, “you busting in here like that. Who are you? What do you want?”“Emma Langly. Now are you the Colemans?”“Yes. What do you want?”“Which one is which?”
She could see the older one was not happy with her, but she had to be sure.“I’m Caleb, he’s Zack.”“I have something that belongs to you. Your father’s journal.”Caleb studied her a moment and laid his Colt on the bed beside him. Zack slipped his knife back down over his shoulder into the sheath on his back.“We didn’t know our daddy kept a journal.”“Zack said.“Evidently no one did. Until he gave it to my uncle, that is.”“And who is your uncle?”Zack asked.“Colonel James Campbell.”“Why would our daddy give your uncle his journal?”Caleb asked.“Your father said it contained some very damaging information about a high ranking political official. Two of them, actually. Men he’d known years before. Murderers who deserved a hanging. Your father hoped my uncle would agree with him, which he did, and thought my uncle was in a better position than your father to do something. Your father|Before she could finish the door burst open. Emma screamed at the sound of the crashing door and began to turn as a man, gun in hand, rushed into the room|
Thus begins Part 2 of The Colemans saga, where Caleb and Zack learn even more about their famous father and find themselves pitted against a skilled and deadly opponent, a hired assassin who knew and respected their father’s skills, but who, if he has to, will kill Royce Coleman’s sons to recover the journal and protect its secrets.

Customer Reviews

Glenn Rogers has again exceeded in this second of his three-part Colemans series. As Caleb and Zach Coleman embark on a bloody trail of revenge for the murder of their parents, they continue to learn the depth of the legendary heroism of their father, a storied mountain man. At the same time, fame precedes them as the Colemans carve out their own legend in the West shortly after the Civil War. Despite the fact that they are waylaid by their Good Samaritan acts of kindness, or perhaps more likely because of it, they gain respect from not only those they save, but those who would rather not see them alive. Rogers' meticulous research lends an authentic air to The Journal. He is able to build tremendous tension in his story without gratuitous violence. When the Colemans have to take someone's life, it is not without reason. As a result, the Coleman brothers gain the reader's respect more than many protagonists in the Western genre.

Its ok

The Colemans Trilogy is a must read. Caleb and Zach Coleman are on a quest that involves non-stop action and unexpected twists and turns. The characters are real, and the personalities are enjoyable because we have all met someone just like them. This book is already in my library; it should be in yours. Now I am just waiting for it to be made into a movie. Enjoy!
