In 1985, she was chosen as "Faculty Member of the Year" by the student body at California Baptist University, and in 1991 she received a YWCA "Women of Achievement" award. Francisco Mena-Ayllon, a native of Madrid, Spain, received his Ph.D. in Spanish from the University of California, Riverside, in 1973. Professor Mena-Ayllon is now retired.

Rented this book for college Spanish class. Just what I needed. Book was in good condition.

I bought this book to use on my devices, but the book will only work on my iPhone. I cannot get it to work with my PC for Windows 8 app. Basically, it is useless without my phone and my phone does not make it large enough to make good reading of this particular book

Excited about learning Spanish, this book is helpful

Great book

Great book and its in great shape

As stated in description.

I downloaded the free trial of the e-book, which took a good while, but that was all right; I decided, there must be a lot of content downloaded. But when I tried to open it, it would not open. I then removed it from the device and tried to download it again (a couple of hours later), but got a message that my free period was expired. Fortunately for me, I wasted time and not money.

This book title is misleading. It makes it sound like the electronic content is included, but it is not. It costs an additional $124 at the iLrn website. This book is overpriced for not including the content. The electronic content includes an e-book, so if you don't mind not having a physical book, just buy that. The electronic content cannot be accessed on iPhones or iPads because it is flash based. Even the flash apps don't work.
