Beg Me Angel

Synopsis

I never asked to have her, but now she'll have to beg me to let her go. All I wanted was to be left alone, to be free from the past that tried to consume me. Until I found her beaten and left for dead in my woods. I never expected to see a young girl curled up in the brush, covered in dirt and bruises. She was so innocent and helpless. So I brought her home, I helped her, I took care of her. . . I saved her. When the dirt came off I saw nothing but woman. Her figure was full and needy, her lush lips were tempting and ready to taste my ck. Everything about her made me want her for myself. And when she told me she was a virgin, that was enough to seal her fate. I knew what she wanted and I was ready to give it to her. But the world was looking for this lost girl, she had a family that wanted her back. Even if I had the soul to do what was right, my heart wouldn't let me. She became mine the moment I cradled her in my arms. And I didn't plan on that ever changing. Why should I let go of something that was mine? *Author's Note: This full length dark romance has a guaranteed HEA and no cliffhanger. Beg Me Angel is the perfect mix of dark and steamy that will melt your kindle and your heart!

Customer Reviews

This was a beautiful story full of action and drama. This dramatically touching romance was filled with characters that were intriguing and the storyline interesting enough to keep the readers wanting more.

Good book over all. A little long winded on explanations instead of letting the story take you. Great hot sex scenes though ;)

Enjoyed this book. ABSOLUTELY love alpha men with a HEA ending. Wilderness men are hot, first read by this author

Very hot. Exciting storyline. Worth reading.

Holy smokes! Never had a book effect me the way this did. I could feel my heart racing at times. Super hott and sexy! I wanted more!

It's a great book to read.

When Pax saw a fire in his woods he went to investigate and on his way he heard a woman scream but when he got there he couldn't find her. Thinking it must have been an animal he began making sure the fire was out when he saw a pair of shoes sticking out of a bush. When he finally got the poor girl out and took her to his cabin he wasn't sure if she would survive. When Vera opened her eyes she had no idea where she was or even what happened but she was hurting all over. When she opened the door she came upon a man who looked scary but she could see something in his eyes. When Vera questions him he shuts down and when she wants to go to town to call her mother and tell her she is ok he tells her no that she is his and he's keeping her. They began to grow closer and Vera finds she is happy there but she would be happier if she could get some answers and when the cops come knocking she doesn't want to go. Pax and Vera seem like they shouldn't be together but as you read the story things begin to fall into place and you are not so sure if they should be separated.

She is found by Pax in the woods, beaten and close to death. He takes her home with and does what he can for her. She is so badly injured that he thinks she may not make it, so he digs a grave. After 3 days Vera comes around but remembers only her name. Pax is a man with a past and some pretty dark demons he continually has to fight. As he gets to know Vera, he realises that she calms him and he decides that he is going to keep her. Yup, you heard right. What about her family? They must be looking for her. What about her life? What happened to her friend Sara who was with her? Pax can't take her into town..how does he explain that he found this woman, who doesn't remember what happened to her, neither does he. How is it all going to look. What happens when the police come calling?? You have to get the book to find out for yourself what happens. It is not what you think. The story is brilliantly told and all the loose ends tie up nicely. 5 stars and highly recommended! I voluntarily read this ARC and am giving my honest and unbiased opinion of the book as I experienced it
