Roller Derby Art: Women, Wheels, And Wicked Fun

Synopsis

Today's roller derby is a wildly popular woman's contact sport, international in scope. This grass roots sport is built on fun, for the spirited rollerskaters and the fans alike. From Reno to Toronto, roller derby is everywhere. See 250 color images of promotional material, including fliers, handbills, logos, and posters promoting bouts for more than 50 leagues around the world, that convey the thrill of roller derby's glamour, grit, and glory. See the ladies themselves, as they travel the globe on eight wheels. Collect the artwork and be inspired to join the fun, on either side of the railing.

Sherri Culison Pfouts, voted Best Blocker by her teammates for the Naptown Roller Girls, rides with the Knife's Edge Bicycle Club of Indianapolis on her vintage Schwinn. When not strictly having fun, she is senior editor for Indianapolis Monthly magazine, editor-in-chief for Stretching Canvas art magazine, and assistant editor for International Tattoo Art magazine.

I love the idea of this, and some of the art is quite good. I think we're more than ready for a second volume, though, with the insane growth of roller derby. Our art at Roc City Roller Derby was fabulous too, and I'm sure there's other new/amazing stuff out there. Great gift for the roller derby fan or skater in your life.

I have a few Roller Derby books and decided to add this one to my collection. Not alot from the past that I knew of. However for what it's worth, ok if yuo are into art and creativity of advertisement. Other then that I would pass on this book!
