This guide was invaluable to us on our regretfully short tour of St. Petersburg. We would read it before touring for background and descriptions of the places we visited. The book is worth having for detailed illustrations of the layout of the Hermitage, Peterhof, Pushkin Palace, Yusupov Palace... It is a portable guide even with the color illustrations (i.e. not heavy). Comes with its own bookmark, too! Highly recommended!

We have looked at several books on our two visits to St. Petersburg, and the Knopf is by far the best. It has superb illustrations and thorough descriptions as well as sample tours. It also has excellent historical and political information to set the City in context.
