planning.

Lousy travel guide. Provides little useful information. Having now visited, it seems like someone flew here, stayed in the nicest places, traveled the most expensive ways, and then gathered up some of the free brochures that get handed out and copied from them into this book. Unless you've never heard of the Seychelles and are buying this book to consider, "Gee, I've heard people say this place is nice and I have plenty of money to waste", don't buy it.

We used this guide in conjunction with the Globetrotter guide to the Seychelles, also reviewed. Neither guide is comprehensive, but they do complement each other well, and both come with excellent maps. Found them both useful for an independent visit to Mahé and Praslin. Great places to visit.
