Paula Harrison began inventing stories and writing them down as a child, including one about a magical land inhabited by talking bookworms. She lives with her husband and two children in England.

Fantastic book for my six year old daughter. We read these books before bed at night and she loves them. I love that the story is interesting and features strong female characters. My daughter loves the animals and the tales of friendship. Wonderful books that I am certain my daughter will read again when she is older.

Paula Harrison has done an amazing job at capturing the attention of her young readers. My eight year old falls asleep reading those books. She just has to have one before bed. Amazing!

My daughter discovered these chapter books, she's loving them
