This is the epitome of 80s dark age comics. The writing and art do a great job of depicting a gritty and almost surreal sense of 1980s Marvel New York. In many ways, this collection is better than The Dark Knight Returns, which Miller wrote at about the same time as he was working on this. One other thing to point out: this book is "dark" and "gritty", but it does not rely on a completely greyed out color palette to convey that. Zach Snyder (who directed the recent Man of Steel) might want to take a look and take a hint.

Frank Miller. Back in the day, When someone spoke his name, you instantly thought "That man knows how to write." And this is proof. Before he wrote "Batman: The Dark Knight Returns" and "Batman: Year One" (both of which I highly recommend if you like Batman) and re-defined that classic character, he recreated the Man Without Fear. In Daredevil: Vol 2, you will read some of the best Daredevil comics that have been published. Frank Miller Brings the character to a place no one had previously achieved. He made him cool. And bad to the bone. In this collection, you can see why he is called the man without fear. This is a wonderful read if you are a fan of daredevil or of just comics in general. These are truly Classic. And for the price (which on .com is about $10.00 cheaper than a bookstore) you can't beat it. Especially since these single issues in your local comic shop (if you even have one) would probably go for that price alone. So long story short--Buy this. Read it. And enjoy it.

The best Daredevil comics ever!

This book met all my expectations! So many characters, a great story and such amazing art. If you're a daredevil fan, this is a must read!

Miller starts to mold Murdock/Daredevil from the Swashbuckler he was into the Man Without Fear we know now.

Nice to read these issues in this format without paying big bucks for individual issues. Very good quality.

Frank Miller and Klaus Janson are a power house and have given us the greatest Daredevil run ever!

the frank miller run is a must for fans of a great story and fans of daredevil-purchased from indoobestsellers with ease and delight.
