Purchased this book when my daughter moved to Queens and was looking for a job in NYC. It was a great intro to the neighborhoods in NY My daughter was a student at Hunter College and looking for a job in the city. It gave a great overview and the map was wonderful. We have used it extensively for restaurants, attractions etc. Being a native of upstate Ny and having very little city experience it was great for me. I can find my way to and from Penn Station and the Port Authority and really enjoy all that the city has to offer. My daughter used this book to find her first interview at an upscale NY restaurant where she now works while being a busy college student.. This book is packed with great info.

Wife borrowed Fodor's from library - she liked the book info - going to New York in July with our daughter. Very fast delivery-product in good condition.

Great

Helpful guide. Maps are especially helpful in making plans

This was an extremely helpful travel guide. The explanations were very good, the advice on how to get to places was perfect, and the restaurant recommendations were spot on. I also enjoyed the special sections explaining places of significant interest like the memorial at ground zero. If you can, please also follow their recommended walks - very interesting.

great info book
