Basic Written Chinese Practice Essentials: An Introduction To Reading And Writing For Beginners (MP3 Audio CD And Printable Flash Cards Included)

Synopsis

Use this one-of-a-kind practice guide and Chinese workbook together with any Chinese book or language program, and dramatically enhance your speaking. No matter what book or course you're using to learn Chinese, it takes a lot of practice. Here is a wealth of effective practice activities to help polish your written Chinese. This book corresponds to Basic Written Chinese and allows you to move from complete beginner level to basic proficiency. An included disc contains extensive audio material, as well as (printable) flash cards. Practice Essentials includes carefully designed activities to help solidify every aspect of your spoken Chinese skills, including: Chinese character practice sheets. Dictation, fill in the blank, dialog completion. Answering questions, map reading, converting written style to spoken style. Identify radicals and phonetics; punctuating sentences. Written tasks based on realia like schedule, photographs, and name cards. Translation exercises. The corresponding MP3 audio CD includes: 64 minutes of native speaker audio. 288 printable flash cards. Together with this book, you can use the Basic Spoken Chinese series if you want to learn fluent spoken Mandarin. About the Series: Respected Chinese language expert Dr. Cornelius Kubler, who has taught diplomats, business people and students, presents a learning system that uses separate but integrated "tracks" to help you efficiently master the basics of spoken and written Chinese. The materials in Basic Spoken Chinese allow you to move from complete beginner level to basic fluency.

"Revolutionary in its approach | The dream of having engaged and fully-prepared students in every class is an easily reachable reality for any program that adopts this series." â Professor Cecilia Chang, Chair, Department of Asian Studies, Williams College "This is one of the best elementary Chinese textbooks, I believe, ever produced in the history of teaching Chinese as a second language â | A great and unique work which will benefit students and teachers for many years to come." â Dr. Shengli Feng, Professor of Chinese Linguistics, Chinese University of Hong Kong "Outstanding for its carefully graduated presentation of material â | and perhaps most important of all, its separation of the task of learning to speak the language from the very different processes of learning to read and write Chinese characters â | The most exciting Chinese language textbook I have seen in many years." â Dr. James E. Dew, retired associate professor of Chinese, Univ. of Michigan; former Director of the Inter-University Program for Chinese Language Studies in Taipei "A breath of fresh air â | Its dual track for spoken and written language finally gives American students a chance to develop oral proficiency without being slowed down by the character writing â | An ideal textbook for any program that seeks to advance rapidly in spoken Chinese and to fully prepare the students for their encounter with China." â Dr. Jingqi Fu, Associate Professor of Chinese, St. Mary's College of Maryland "Contextualized so learners know not only what to say, but why, when, and with whom it is appropriate to use such language â " thorough and clear â " refreshing." â Dr. Matthew Christensen, Associate Professor of Chinese, Brigham Young University "Kubler's books distinguish themselves with natural, culturally-rooted dialogues, detailed notes (for both written and spoken language), generous practice activities and an amazing care for organization. These books will be valuable tools for both students and their teachers." â Prof. Eric Pelzl, Wisconsin Lutheran College "An ingenious introduction â " Basic Spoken Chinese is the finest textbook for learning Modern Standard Mandarin that I have ever encountered." â Dr. Victor H. Mair, Professor of Chinese Language and Literature, University of Pennsylvania "The ideal material for any committed learner embarking on the journey of learning the Chinese language." â Dr. Jun Yang, Senior Lecturer in Chinese, University of Chicago

Cornelius C. Kubler, Stanfield Professor of Asian Studies at Williams College, received his B.A., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees in linguistics from Cornell University. He earned a second M.A. in Chinese literature from National Taiwan University. From 1980-1991 he was employed at the Foreign Service Institute, U.S. Department of State, where he served as Language Training Supervisor in Mandarin, Cantonese, Japanese, and Mongolian; as Principal of the advanced Chinese field school in Taiwan; and as Chair of the Department of Asian and African Languages. Since joining Williams College in 1991, he has chaired the former Department of Chinese and Asian Studies Program as well as the Department of Asian Studies, which he was instrumental in founding. He has also served as visiting professor at Eisenhower College, Portland State University, Middlebury College, National Taiwan Normal University, Chinese University of Hong Kong, and Wenzao Ursuline University of Languages. Kubler, who is author or coauthor of 20 books and over 50 articles on Chinese language pedagogy and linguistics, frequently serves as reviewer or consultant for Chinese and Asian Studies programs in the U.S. and overseas. He has served as Chair of the Test Development Committee for the SAT Subject Test in Chinese and as member of the Executive Committee of the Association of Departments of Foreign Languages of the Modern Language Association. He is currently serving as American Co-Director of The Johns Hopkins University-Nanjing University Center for Chinese and American Studies in Nanjing, China. Jerling Guo Kubler is a graduate of the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures of Soochow University, Taipei. Her experience in language education spans more than 35 years. She has taught all levels of Chinese as a Second/Foreign Language from pre-kindergarten to university level at institutions including Williams College, Eisenhower College and Taipei Language Institute.

I have collected almost all of the books, tapes, videos on learning CHinese. This book is a good beginning to WRITING CHinese with a fine dvd. You will need to study meaning, grammar, etc elsewhere/ This is not one of those silly books that tries to make you remember Hanzi from made up pictograms.

I've looked at, and rejected, many Chinese language learning materials. I learned my spoken Chinese with Fluenz, which rocks, but it doesn't teach reading and writing, This book takes good chunk sizes, and understands the importance of lots of practice. They even manage to make the practice reasonably interesting right from the start (difficult when your vocabulary is at the level of a dozen or so characters!). By about the fifty character mark, I was laughing at the occasional burst of humor in their exercise samples. Note that this review really relates to the combination of Basic Written Chinese and the Practice Essentials workbook.

Helpful

I would really recommend getting the entire bundle (Basic Spoken Chinese as well). These books serves as a great complement for me because I am taking Chinese in school with separate textbooks, and I love the "second opinion" these books give. It even comes with flashcards you can print out! I definitely recommend this!!Happy Learning!

This is great, six words per lesson, and plenty of supplementary vocabulary and repetitive short drills to build memory of the characters. This book is without question the best available, even much better than those used in China and Taiwan.

These are the absolute BEST Chinese language textbooks on the market. Great companion workbook to Basic Written Chinese. The author (Kubler) has created a curriculum that anyone can learn. The CD's work great, the textbook is easy to follow, and you'll be learning some basic written Chinese in no time! Great purchase!

Required for daughters high school language class, good teacher, must be a good book.

Very good!
