Customer Reviews

This book is a joke. Rio in 3 days. On day one they tell you to go to your hotel and go to sleep. are you kidding me. Then they give you two days itinerary that you could go to trip advisor and get more. Save your money this book is a rip off.

The information about Rio could have been printed on one page. The book may have been written by a guy in his Mom's basement in Kansas after a couple hours web searching. Don't reward this.

I hoped was longer and giving more tips. If you need to know what to visit in Rio, is better to get another guide. This one is really good if someone has really short time but it does not give enough information about Rio. Some important sights to visit are missing, and I think is too superficial.

This is an awesome little book! This book is a great one to look at if you ever want to go to Rio some time in your life. It is informative and well-made. Would definitely recommend.

Nice guide for a nice price.
