Tattoo Designs: Lettering And Banners (Tattoo-U)

Synopsis

Whether it's the classic "Mom" stretched across a heart, or something more unique, there is always the need for more letter fonts and banner styles in a tattoo shop. Contained in this one book are examples of both that will convert easily into stencils or just spark your creativity. With 34 pages, each with multiple styles, there's plenty of inspiration right here, and all for a bargain price.

Customer Reviews

its o.k, theres alot of different things in there that wont be used by anyone really, unless they like stuff thats hard too read

I like the concept of this book, no nonsense, just designs to help artists visualise what they need to create a unique work of there own..

Being that the book is specifically for lettering and banners, it could have contained a little more variety. But overall, worth the price as compared to paying for the flash.

Thought it was a regular flip book and can't return.

I've never seen this book but ok!?!?!?

It's a cheap book so I bought it. Didn't know I had to do a review to unlock the whole thing.

2 thumbs up!

pretty short-cant copy n paste-only a few pages -probably not even worth 5 bucks-you can google most of the stuff in this "LITTLE SHORT BOOK"
